

Websites for Further Research

Infrastructure

- <http://www.icafrica.org/> — Infrastructure Consortium for Africa is an organization that helps improve the lives of the African people by encouraging and supporting the development of infrastructure.
- <http://www.undp.org/africa/> — This is the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) page on Africa and their work in the continent.
- <http://www.undp.org/mdg/> — The UNDP is focused on the Millennium Development Goals and reaching them by the 2015 deadline.
- <http://www.infrastructureafrica.org/aicd/> — This is the homepage of AICD, which is a good source to discover current activities that aim to improve Africa's infrastructure.

Currency

- <http://www.uneca.org> — The official website of the Economic Commission of Africa discusses recent policies and conferences of the ECA.
- <http://www.imf.org/external/pubs/ft/fandd/2004/12/pdf/masson.pdf> — This is an informational packet with a good analysis of African Currency debates.
- http://www.brookings.edu/press/books/chapter_1/monetarygeographyofafrica.pdf — This is a guide to the African Monetary Union.
- <http://www.un.org/ecosocdev/geninfo/afrec/vol16no1/161finan.htm> — This article discusses the financial future of Africa.

- <http://lencd.com/data/docs/9-challenges%20facing%20Africas%20regional%20economic%20communities%20in.pdf> — This article talks about the challenges that are facing Africa's regional economic communities today.
- <http://www.dfa.gov.za/> — This is the website of the department of foreign affairs of the Republic of South Africa, and it has information on structures and proposals for the African continent and its integration.